SABUJAK

Thoughtfully Made, Beautifully Curated.

CONTEMPORARY POTTERY / CRAFT / DESIGN STUDIO

SABUJAK is a New Jersey-based contemporary ceramics, craft, and design studio that originated at ART MORA Gallery. Led by gallery director and ceramic artist Sunny Shin, SABUJAK specializes in developing and producing handcrafted ceramics, custom merchandise, and thoughtfully curated objects tailored to each client's unique identity and vision.

Collaborating with local artists and independent makers, SABUJAK blends Korean-inspired aesthetics, contemporary design, and traditional craftsmanship to create distinctive products for museums, hotels, cafés, cultural institutions, and lifestyle brands.

SELECTED COLLABORATIONS AND PROJECTS

2026 Cleveland Museum of Art

Designed and handcrafted a custom ceramic collection inspired by Korean Goryeo celadon for a special exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art. Developed specifically to reflect the exhibition's cultural and artistic themes, the collection transforms historical inspiration into contemporary functional objects. The pieces are currently available for purchase at the museum's store.

2025 D'avant

Developed, handcrafted, and supplied custom ceramic cups for coffee and hojicha service at D'avant, a popular bakery and café chain.

2017 Warwick Hotels & Resorts

Led by Sunny Shin, this hospitality art project involved the custom production and installation of a signature artwork for the main lobby of Warwick Paradise Island Bahamas, developed specifically for the hotel's opening. The commission demonstrates experience in creating site-specific artwork tailored to hospitality interiors and architectural environments.

Since 2014 Korea Investment Corporation (KIC)

Providing curated artworks and rentals for Korea Investment Corporation (KIC), bringing contemporary art into a professional corporate environment. The collaboration reflects Sunny Shin and her team's expertise in art selection, corporate art services, and integrating contemporary artworks into commercial spaces.

Since 2013 PizzArte

Sunny Shin and her team have overseen the art curation, decorative design, and artwork installations throughout PizzArte, an Italian restaurant located near the Museum of Modern Art (MoMA) in Midtown Manhattan.

This long-standing collaboration includes the ongoing selection, installation, and management of artworks and decorative elements throughout the property, creating a distinctive dining environment that integrates art, design, and hospitality.

From bespoke tableware to exhibition-inspired museum gifts and exclusive collections, SABUJAK transforms creative concepts into meaningful, handcrafted objects that connect art, culture, and everyday life.
